ELEGANT RECEPTION

Misses Elizabeth, Nelle and Lucy Carr were "at home" to the members of the Bachelor Girls' Club on last Thursday evening. The parlors and drawing room were daintily decorated with evergreens and Christmas bells. A lively game of 500 amused the guests during the evening and at the close a comparison of scores showed that Miss Foy Harris was the winner of a dainty picture, and Mr. Will Harris of a tie rack.

A delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses, assisted by their sister, Mrs. Bellow.

The guests were Misses Bess and Lillie Painter, Mary, Mabel and Sarah Gildersleeve, Floy Harris, Roma Eiseman, Tomsie Baxter and Anna

Barlow; Messrs. Boyd, R. A. Reagan, Geo. Gildersleeve, Will Thomas, Walter J. Miller, Tate L. Earnest, Stanley Barlow, Horace Miller, Will Miller, W. M. Harris, Haynes Miller and Paul Carr.

Free Railroad Fare to Bristol Paid By Bristol Retail Merchants-Dec. 10-24

The payment of Railroad Fare to and from Bristol by merchants whose names appear in this advertisement, will be based upon the amount of your purchases. Below is a list of points and amounts you must buy in order to get your round trip fare refunded. If you buy half the amount or more [and not the full amount] then your will be paid one way only.

When the Merchants of Bristol offer to pay your Railroad Fare, it is done as a straight business proposition and pays only in an increased volume of business. But as a greater inducement for you to come to Bristol, they offer most comprehensive assortments of up-to-date merchandise figured at the very lowest competitive prices. Come early at the invitation and expense of the Retail Merchants of Bristol.

Bear in mind that you do not have to buy from any one merchant the total amount called for from your town. But if your purchases among the merchants listed in this ad total the amount listed or more, your fare comes free. Example. If you come under the fifteen dollar schedule, and buy only a dollar from any fifteen merchants in this list, you will have met the conditions.
